- (d) no alternate director shall be appointed as a member of the Group Audit Committee;
- (e) any vacancy, which affects the composition, must be filled within three (3) months.

Chairman

The members of the Group Audit Committee shall elect a Chairman, from among their members, who shall be an Independent Non-Executive Director.

Secretary

The Company Secretary ("Secretary") of Magnum shall serve as Secretary of the Group Audit Committee.

Review of Composition of Group Audit Committee

The Board of Directors through the Nomination Committee shall review the term of office and performance of the Group Audit Committee and each of its members annually to determine whether the Group Audit Committee and members have carried out their duties in accordance with the terms of reference.

MEETINGS AND REPORTING PROCEDURES

- (a) The Group Audit Committee shall meet as often as the Chairman deems necessary but not less than four(4) times a year, with each meeting planned to coincide with key dates in the Company's financial reporting cycle.
- (b) The Group Audit Committee shall meet at least twice(2) a year with the external auditors to discuss any matters with the Committee without the presence of Executive Board members and employees of the Company.
- (c) The Chairman of the Group Audit Committee shall engage continuously with senior Management, such as the Chairman, the Executive Director, Chief Financial Officer, the Head of Group Internal Audit and external auditors in order to be kept informed of matters affecting the Group.

- (d) To form a quorum in respect of a meeting of the Group Audit Committee, the majority of its members present at the meeting must be Independent Directors Non-Executive directors.
- (e) The Secretary is responsible for:
 - (i) drawing up the agenda together with the Chairman, and circulating it, supported by explanatory documentation, to the committee members prior to each meeting;
 - (ii) recording attendance of all members and invitees;
 - (iii) recording all proceedings, and preparing and keeping minutes of all meetings; and
 - (iv) circulation of the minutes to all Board members at each Board Meeting.
- (f) The Group Audit Committee shall regulate the manner of proceeding of its meetings, having regard to normal conventions on such matter.
- (g) The Chief Financial Officer and the Head of Group Internal Audit should normally attend meetings upon invitation of the Committee. Other directors, employees and representatives of the external auditors shall attend any particular Group Audit Committee meeting only at the Committee's invitation, specific to the relevant meeting.
- (h) The Group Audit Committee shall prepare an annual report to the Board that provides a summary of the Committee's work in the discharge of its functions and duties for that financial year and how it has met its responsibilities for inclusion in the Company's annual report.

AUTHORITY OF THE GROUP AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Group Audit Committee shall have the authority to:

- (a) investigate any matter within its terms of reference and all employees are directed to cooperate with any request made by the Committee;
- (b) have the resources which are required to perform its duties;
- (c) have full and unrestricted access to any information pertaining to the Company;
- (d) have direct communication channels with the external auditors and person(s) carrying out the internal audit function or activity;
- (e) obtain, at the expense of the Company, outside legal or other independent professional or other advice it considers necessary;
- (f) convene meetings with the external auditors, the internal auditors or both, excluding the attendance of other Directors and employees of the Company, whenever deemed necessary;
- (g) report promptly any breaches of the Main Market Listing Requirements, which have not been satisfactorily resolved by the Board, to the Bursa Securities; and

- (h) to convene a meeting, upon request of the external auditors, to consider any matter the external auditors believe should be brought to the attention of the Directors or shareholders.

FUNCTIONS OF THE GROUP AUDIT COMMITTEE

In fulfilling its primary objectives, the Group Audit Committee shall undertake the following responsibilities and duties and report to the Board of Directors:

- (a) Review the quarterly results and year-end financial statements, prior to the approval of the Board of Directors, focusing particularly on:
 - (i) changes in or implementation of major accounting policies and practices;
 - (ii) significant matters highlighted including financial reporting issues, significant judgments made by Management, significant and unusual events or transactions, and how these matters are addressed;
 - (iii) significant adjustments arising from the audit;
 - (iv) going concern assumptions; and
 - (v) compliance with accounting standards, regulatory and other legal requirements.
- (b) Review the annual performance assessment of external auditors including the suitability, competency and independence of the Company's external auditors.
- (c) Recommend the nomination, appointment, re-appointment of external auditors, the audit fee and address any question of resignation or dismissal before making recommendations to the Board; and evaluate if there is reason (supported by facts) to believe that the Company's external auditors are not suitable for re-appointment.
- (d) Review/discuss with the external auditors:
 - (i) the independence and objectivity of the external auditors and their services, including non-audit services and professional fees, so as to ensure a proper balance between objectivity and value for money;
 - (ii) the audit scope and plan, including any changes to the planned scope of the audit plan, and ensure co-ordination where more than one audit firm is involved;
 - (iii) its evaluations of the system of internal control;
 - (iv) the results of the interim (if any) and final audits and the Management's response thereto, including the status of previous audit recommendations;
 - (v) problems and reservations arising from the interim (if any) and final audits, and any matter the auditors may wish to discuss (in the absence of the management, where necessary);

- (vi) the assistance given by the employees to the external auditors, and any difficulties encountered in the course of the audit work, including any restrictions on the scope of activities or access to required information.
- (e) In respect of the internal audit function, which is independent of the activities it audits and oversee, the Group Audit Committee's functions are as follows:
 - (i) review the adequacy of the internal audit scope, functions, competency and resources of the internal audit functions and that it has the necessary authority to carry out its work;
 - (ii) review the internal audit programmes, processes, progress of audit activities, the results of the internal audit activities or investigation undertaken, and whether or not appropriate action is taken on the recommendations of the internal audit function, including management's response;
 - (iii) review/recommend the nomination, appointment, re-appointment and performance of internal audit service provider before making recommendations to the Board; and evaluate if there is reason (supported by facts) to believe that the Company's internal audit service provider is not suitable for re-appointment.
- (f) Review any related party transaction and conflict of interest situation that may arise within the Company or Group including any transaction, procedure or course of conduct that raise questions of management integrity.
- (g) Direct, and where appropriate, supervise any special projects or investigation considered necessary, and review investigation reports on any major defalcations, frauds and thefts.
- (h) Review the policies and procedures in respect of the reporting obligations of the Group in compliance with the provisions of Anti-Money Laundering (Amendment) Act 2003.
- (i) Carry out any such other functions as authorised by the Board of Directors.

The Group Audit Committee shall report any suspected frauds or irregularities, serious internal control deficiencies or suspected infringement of laws, rules and regulations which come to its attention and of sufficient importance to warrant the attention of the Board.
